

THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA

Innovations in Aging

Graduate Interdisciplinary Program

SPRING 2025

Online Courses in Aging

Online graduate courses exploring important topics in aging.

Take courses as:

1. Part of the Master's program in Innovations in Aging
2. Part of the Graduate Certificate in Innovations in Aging
3. An elective in your current major

Session 5W1: 1/15/25 - 2/19/25

IIA 508: Human Aging: Biological & Psychological Perspectives | 1 credit

Lorraine Martin-Plank, PhD, FNP-BC, NP-C, GNP-BC, FAANP, FNAP

EDP 532: Human Aging: Strategies for critical evaluation | 1 credit

Heidi Burross, PhD

Session 5W2: 2/20/25 - 4/2/25

FCM 524C/AIAR 524C: Human Aging: Humanities & Art Perspectives | 1 credit

Jennie Gubner, PhD | Yumi Shirai, PhD

IIA 536: Human Aging: Current Trends in Tech & Innovations | 1 credit

TBD

Session 5W3: 2/3/25 - 5/7/25

MED 531: Human Aging: Applied Theory | 1 credit

Linda Phillips, RN, PhD, FAAN, FGSA

CPH 539: Human Aging: Across Disciplines | 1 credit

Amanda Sokan, PhD, MHA, LL.B

All 5-Week Sessions

IIA 598: Human Aging: Applying Aging Innovations | 1 credit

Session 7W1: 1/15/25 - 3/7/25

NURS 515: Aging and Chronic Conditions: A Quality of Life Approach | 3 credits

Cheryl Lacasse, PhD, RN, AOCNS

Session 7W2: 3/17/25 - 5/7/25

IIA 551: Equity, Diversity & Inclusion in Research on Aging | 3 credits

TBD

Session Regular Academic: 1/15/25 - 5/7/25

IIA 909: Human Aging: Applying Aging Innovations | 1-3 credits

Email: innovationsinaging@arizona.edu